CALL FOR PAPERS

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE New Perspectives in Humanities Research in the AI Era

25–26 May 2026 · Bucharest

The Faculty of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Dimitrie Cantemir Christian University has long been committed to academic excellence in its core fields of philology, linguistic and intercultural communication, translation studies, and literary studies.

We invite scholars to present their research findings and contribute to a forum of high academic exchange and cross-disciplinary dialogue.

THEMATIC AREAS:

Original contributions are welcome on topics including, but not limited to:

- › Digitalization of teaching and the integration of Artificial Intelligence in education
- › AI-driven approaches to foreign language teaching and acquisition
- › Translation as cultural reinterpretation and textual hermeneutics
- › Contemporary literary theory and criticism
- › Cultural studies and trans- and multidisciplinary approaches
- › Linguistic and intercultural communication in a globalized context

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

The conference welcomes researchers, university faculty, doctoral candidates, postdoctoral scholars, and specialists with expertise in the aforementioned fields. Scholars from diverse disciplinary backgrounds are encouraged to share their research and contribute meaningfully to the dissemination of knowledge, fostering new paradigms of perception and representation within the Humanities in the AI era.
